Chautauqua

Chautauqua programs are funded in part by a grant from Nevada Humanities and the National Endowment for the Humanities.

Evenings, 6:30-7:30 pm; $15, $10 for members

June 15: Susan Marie Frontczak portrays diplomat, activist, and First Lady Eleanor Roosevelt in “This is My Story,” set in 1937 during the Great Depression.

July 13: DebiLynn Smith as Dr. Eliza Cook, Nevada’s first state-licensed woman doctor who practiced mainly in Carson Valley and was also a suffragist.

July 20: Doug Mishler as Dwight D. Eisenhower, 34th President of the United States.

August 3: David Woodruff as John “Snowshoe” Thompson, famous mailman of the Sierra for over 20 years during winter snows, and known for the lives he saved.

August 10: Kim Harris as Eliza Eppinger, presenting “San Francisco is Burning,” sharing her experiences during the 1906 San Francisco earthquake and fire.

Afternoons, 1:00-2:00 pm; $15, $10 for members

June 25: McAvoy Layne as Mark Twain, humorist and author will offer his wit and wisdom from his adventures in the early days of Nevada and beyond.

June 26: Frank X. Mullen as Henry VIII, who was born in 1497 and crowned King of England at the age of seventeen, married many wives, and devolved into a tyrant.

Morning, 10:00-11:30 am; free for everyone

July 9: Dangberg Chautauqua Showcase: A special event featuring graduates from the 2021 Chautauqua Workshop, portraying various figures from history in short-form presentations. A complete lineup of presenters will be announced in June.

Concerts

Evenings, 6:30-8:00 pm, $20, $15 for members.

- June 16: Old West Trio and songs of the cowboy: three voices, two guitars, and a stand-up bass bring Western harmonies and plenty of fun.
- June 30: The Sierra Sweethearts play an exciting blend of bluegrass spiced with humor.
- July 7: Lacy J. Dalton, award-winning artist, plays her hits and other country-western originals, always with a good story and a smile.
- July 14: The Catahoula Mardi Gras Party Band brings a variety of Cajun/Zydeco/Mardi Gras music to a place you wouldn't think to find it. We're looking forward to it!
- August 4: Ciana plays tunes and songs from Ireland, Scotland, and Brittany in the Celtic tradition. Ciana's been entertaining us for years, always bringing a surprise or two.
- August 25: The Gardnervillains jazz quartet in its Home Ranch debut, playing smooth jazz to lift your soul, then some rowdy blues that will get everyone's toes tapping.
